Positive outlook, attractive valuation and dividend yield warrants our BUY rating

SCCC delivered a solid 3Q25 performance with normalized profit in line with expectations, supported by margin expansion and disciplined operations. Profits improved compared with last year, driven by stronger cement margins and LANNA's full consolidation, while the decline versus the previous quarter reflected seasonality and lower coal prices. Looking ahead, 4Q25 earnings should recover on post-rainy season demand and overseas volume growth. Valuation remains compelling at 10.6x PER with a 7.8% dividend yield, underpinned by a BUY rating and Bt195 target price.

Margin gains supported earnings growth while seasonal factors weighed on results

SCCC reported 3Q25 net profit of Bt906m, up 15% compared with last year but down 6% versus the previous quarter. Excluding an FX loss of Bt43m, normalized profit was Bt949m, up 10% compared with last year but down 4% versus the previous quarter. The improvement was driven by revenue growth of 34% from LANNA's full consolidation in 4Q24 and gross margin expansion from 28.7% to 31.6%, supported by LANNA consolidation and improved cement margins in Thailand and Sri Lanka. These gains were underpinned by lower energy costs from reduced average coal prices and a lower Ft rate, effective cost management, and operational efficiencies. The sequential decline reflects a 2% drop in cement EBITDA and profit sharing from Chip Mong Insee due to seasonality, and a 35% reduction in LANNA's EBITDA, primarily from a 9% decrease in the coal index amid global economic slowdown, coupled with lower sales volume.

4Q outlook supported by post-rainy season recovery and overseas growth

We expect 4Q25 earnings to improve compared with last year, supported by local cement price strength and improved overseas operations. Sequential performance should also recover following the end of the rainy season and recent flooding. Thailand's bulk cement demand remains underpinned by infrastructure projects, though private sector demand will likely stay sluggish. Vietnam, Sri Lanka, and Cambodia are positioned for volume growth, albeit with ongoing pricing challenges. Strategic cost management should help preserve margins across markets.

Valuation remains attractive; maintain BUY with Bt195 target

We maintain our BUY rating on SCCC with a target price of Bt195, based on a 2025F PER of 14.7x, in line with its six-year historical average. Our positive stance is supported by strong margin resilience, effective cost control, and diversified geographic exposure, which provide earnings stability despite short-term volatility. Key risks include weaker-than-expected demand, rising energy costs, and intensified price competition across regional markets.
